

YOLO COUNTY DEMOCRAT.

SATURDAY, APRIL 11, 1868.

EASTERN ELECTIONS.—Connecticut has re-elected Gov. English and the whole State Democratic ticket, by a largely increased majority over last year. The municipal elections in Ohio and Michigan show large Democratic gains. The great city of Cincinnati has elected a Democratic Mayor, so has the city of Sandusky. In several counties in Michigan there have been gains on the right side, of from 600 to 1,000. It is the same everywhere; the disciples of Sambo have but a crumb of comfort—the election in Arkansas, where Sambo did all the voting, white men being deterred from so doing by the Military Reconstruction Acts of the Rump Congress.

DEFEATED.—The question of negro suffrage was submitted to the people of Michigan at the election on Monday, and was defeated. The question was embodied in a new Constitution containing many needful reforms, but the proposition was so disapproved that the whole instrument was condemned. So it goes. The Radical leaders have bound themselves to the nigger, and the intelligent people are leaving them alone to the full enjoyment of their affluence. The Radical majority in Michigan, in 1866, was 29,038.

The Republican party, by the extreme ground it threatens to take, is alienating from its confidence and support thousands and tens of thousands who in every State have sustained its fortunes, because they saw in its success the only conditions of a free, permanent and Constitutional Republic. Its action now prompts questions as to motive and character, to which it will be found difficult to give clear and satisfactory replies. It is tempting fate. [N. Y. Times.]

We should say so. The fate of the Republican party—utter defeat and annihilation—is no longer a question of doubt. There is not enough vitality in it to tempt fate or anything else. Tens and hundreds of thousands are already alienated from it.

SEVEN STEAMERS per month will hereafter ply between New York and San Francisco. Four by the Pacific Mail Steamship Company via Panama, two by the North American Steamship Company by the same route, and one via Nicaragua. A heavy emigration is anticipated the coming Summer, owing to cheap fares, as well as the superior inducements offered by the matchless soil and climate of our State.

CHOICES.—The Butte County Press places at the head of its columns its choices for Presidential candidates. First choice, C. Chauncy Burr; second, Seymour, of Connecticut; third, Pendleton; fourth, Vallandigham; fifth, Voorhies, of Indiana; sixth, Jeremiah Black, of Pennsylvania. If the Press will add to the above, "or any other Democrats," it will be very certain to get its choice.

How Much?—The San Mateo Gazette says that a gallon of brandy, retailed at a bit of drink, will bring $61.40; and Smith & Brown, retail liquor-dealers, say that it will only bring $12. Quite a difference, and the Gazette and Smith & Brown are both good authority. Will some man that drinks tell us how many "nips" there are in a gallon of brandy?

RAILROAD ELECTION.—At the recent meeting of the stockholders of the Vallejo & Sacramento Railroad Company the following gentlemen were elected Directors of the road for the ensuing year: Dr. W. O. Rice, Gen. John H. Miller, of San Francisco; Gen. J. B. Fribbie, L. C. Fowler, of Vallejo; C. G. Beckus, W. K. Hudson and A. D. Starr, of Marysville.

BILLIARD CHAMPIONSHIP.—The match game for the championship of America, which came off at Chicago on Monday last, was won by McDewitt, Foster declining to finish the game. The score stood at the close: McDewitt, 1,268; Foster, 1,262.

RAISED.—The steamer "Victor," which was snagged and sunk near Colusa, recently, has been raised and returned to Sacramento. She is to be thoroughly fitted up and again placed upon the route from Sacramento to Red Bluffs.

ELECTION IN ST. LOUIS.—The entire Democratic ticket was elected in St. Louis at the election on Wednesday, by a handsome majority. In 1864, at the election, Lincoln received 14,072 votes, McClellan 882; Lincoln's majority, 13,190.

FOR TRIAL.—Jeff. Davis has been ordered to appear for trial at the May term of the United States District Court at Richmond. It is said that the trial will then take place, and that Chief Justice Chase will preside.

WRECKED.—On Tuesday the ship Autocrat, with 1,500 tons of coal for the P.M.S.S. Company, was wrecked on Arch Rock in the Bay of San Francisco. It is thought that a portion of her cargo will be saved.

CAVED.—The wall of a building occupied as a shoe-store by J. Buell, in Sacramento, caved in on Wednesday while being raised to the high-grade. The proprietor and assistants barely escaped from the building.

THE EIGHTH.—In the amount of Internal Revenue Tax paid the Government, California ranks as the eighth State. As the Santa Clara News says, "This is pretty good for a girl of eighteen summers."

INDICATIONS.—At the election held in Virginia City for Trustee, the Democratic candidate was elected by a majority of 306. So it is everywhere—Democratic gains and Radical losses.

INDICATIONS.

The result of the State elections in Connecticut and Michigan, and the town and municipal election in Ohio are but evidences of the mighty tempest of the people's indignation which is certain to sweep the entire land in November next, hurling from their high positions, obtained through fraud, misrepresentation and unblushing deceit, the men in power who now misrepresent the will and wishes of the truly patriotic and Union-loving people. The late unblinking attempt of the Radical Rump Congress to usurp the powers of its co-ordinate branches of the Government, and the manner in which that power is to be used, as shown by its acts and attempted action, has at length opened the eyes of the people to the great danger to which Constitutional Liberty is exposed from their arrogant assumption of authority not given them by the great fundamental law of the land.

The people put forth their mighty power during four years of war to assert and maintain the fact that the right of secession was not given the States by the Constitution. They were successful; not an armed rebel was in the land; the people had sustained the Administration in the prosecution of a war conducted for the ostensible purpose of maintaining the Constitution in its letter and spirit, and the vanquished South acknowledging their defeat, asked only that which was claimed by the Government at the commencement of the war—asked their rights as States under the Constitution of the United States. They were refused. Humiliating conditions were imposed—galling and insulting to a high-spirited people; laws were enacted by Congress tending and with the intent to force the people of the South into opposition. After a long and bloody war, carried on to maintain the principle that States could not secede or dissolve their connection with the Government, to a successful termination, the leaders of the Radical party, who had obtained place and power by the loud proclamation of the fact, that States could not go out of the Union, at once proclaim that ten States are out of the Union, and will not be admitted without subscribing to humiliating conditions. Such unblinking effrontery is without parallel in the history of the world.

For a time they were successful in blinding their followers. Their loud proclamations of love for the Union and the Constitution, for liberty and the supremacy of the laws, deceived the honest supporters of the Government. But their deceit has been exposed to thinking, honest men by their acts, and when the idea of November shall proclaim the will of the people, these Radical, negro-loving members of Congress will find few, apart from those having personal ends to serve, to follow their lead. They have been "weighed in the balance;" they have been "found wanting." The people know well their deserving, and they will receive their just deserts. Heirs to the contempt and loathing of all who honor truth, courage and honesty, they will ask that oblivion may enfold them in its mantle that they may escape from the just indignation of an offended people, and as a mercy to be forever forgotten.

KILLED.—D'Arcy McGee, a distinguished Canadian politician, and member of the present Parliament, was murdered by some unknown parties one day last week at Ottawa, the Capital. His opposition to the Fenians is supposed to have been the cause of his taking off. There is great excitement in Canada, and another Fenian raid is anticipated.

THE EXAMINER SUGGESTS that Mrs. Stowe, author of "Uncle Tom's Cabin," write another sensation novel, to be entitled "Uncle Tom without a Cabin," and remarks that she will be at no loss to find heroes for such a book if she will make a trip down South, the country being full of poor, shiftless, starving "Uncle Toms," homeless and homeless.

READY.—The Colusa Sun informs its readers that it has cost, during the past four months, $150 per month to furnish the paper more than has been taken in, and its proprietor is ready to "receive cash." Wonder if that last announcement is intended as an item of news?

Letter from San Francisco.

[Special Correspondence of the Democrat.]

SAN FRANCISCO, April 7, 1868.

THE CHINESE.—Do not let your readers suppose that I am about to write a dissertation on the Chinese, their modes and manners (if they ever had any), or upon their modus operandi in the classic precincts of Sacramento street; nor must you for a single moment suppose that I think the Chinese, individually or collectively, of sufficient importance to make them worthy of an item; as, since the days of that immortal Confucius, who confused his countrymen by pinning their tails to their coat-sleeves, not a rice-eating John has been found whose ambition or intelligence extended above a chicken-coop in a dark night, or a tail of opium in some filthy hole underground. But I did put the Chinese at the head of my letter, for they are proving "game" at last, having made choice of our renegade Ambassador as their Minister Plenipotentiary at large, and invested him with powers to establish rice plantations all over the civilized earth, and carry the eucalyptus of the Son of the Moon all over the world. Could you but have seen this American-Chinese Ambassador with his large retinue of chow-chow-eating pig-tails, as they sunned themselves in front of the Occidental! It was a rare sight indeed! Not but what Chinamen, and Indians, and negroes look as much alike as two peas, (except as to their size), but you ought to have seen that holiday street, the respect feathers and gold buttons which distinguished them from their tea and fish-peddling confreres. What an importance our people, who, as class, despise and maltreat Chinamen whenever an opportunity offers, attach to the embassy; and surely they are nothing more than Chinamen; thick and fat as any dressed pig, and as unconcerned whether they are stared at, or their tinsel garments handled by the precocious youths of our fast city. Burlingame will surely make game of his master, who has an inexhaustible mint of money, and if he fails in his mission it will not be because he has not the means. There on our main street, in a short time, who will go to China, from New England, and offer their services to the Tycoon at greatly reduced rates to do similar services, and without the aid of sub-ministers and interpreters. There will be a field for Americans in China, in a little while, which will effectively reduce the number of our candidates for public office; and then when we think of the large emoluments and the great latitude allowed to incumbents, and the rendering of the accounts of our stewardships through channels which are as incomprehensible and unintelligible as a Chinese wash-house, we have everything to gain and nothing to lose. The tale of being proof of being the first man who ever represented China abroad—why, there are thousands who would take $50,000 a year and follow Mr. Burlingame without detracting one iota from his distinction. I would like to keep hotel for a fortnight—say the Occidental—where an enormous throng of Chinamen, who know the value of money, and who have a showman who knows that while we make money in China, the Republic is the place to live in.

AN INNOVATION.—With the increase of immigration and the demand of the times, we have changed our steamer days from three to four a month, and shall hereafter have a weekly line of steamers to Panama. The nearer the iron horse approaches our borders, the more steam our ships require; and the harder the times are East, the more immigrants we receive, and the more homesteads are incorporated. But we shall lose much—very much—when the Pacific Railroad will be finished, and we shall be able to go almost any hour in the day to New York. You see, I know a great number of men who in their time have been foremen of fire companies, sergeants in military companies, officers in various societies, and in order to raise a gold watch, a cane or a set of silver, they would invariably go to the States, and then all the societies to which these men belong have not taken due notice of their departure, they would so manage it as to be left behind, and before the sailing of another steamer, those substantial testimonials would come in, and merit would be rewarded at the eleventh hour. These railroads, however, will preclude the possibility of getting left more than a couple of hours, and then the charm of being the recipient of kind tokens will pass away forever, and one who will be a presiding officer, not even City Treasurer, unless a person can take something with him to show to his friends in the East or in Europe.

AS GOES COMES.—California. Did you not hear the booming of the cannon? The old Nutmeg State is right side up, and we have sent her greetings to-day which will make her still more proud of her victory.

OUR PRIMARY ELECTIONS will come on the 22d instant, and if the Democracy of this city do not elect men who have something else than hireling appendages to boast of, then I am greatly mistaken in the men who compose that time-honored, untried party. Elder Knapp is holding forth daily and nightly at Platt's Hall, and though he has thousands of hearers who come and go out of mere curiosity, he makes but very few proselytes; not even another Jewish Rabbi has turned up among his late acquisition, and it is presumed that his large farm in Illinois will require his services before leaving home. Our new police officers are fully at home in their new suits of gray; but too many of them carry canes, which does not at all comport with the dignity of a peace officer. But then none of them will ever go home on the steamer, and so they provide their own canes.

THE WEATHER is fine again, and we all feel gay.

TALK.—There is talk again of the construction of a wooden mill in Sacramento. Wonder if that is all it will amount to?

PRINCESS says Queen Victoria and King Theodore didn't marry, but they fight just as if they had.

INQUIRE.—Four hundred and three Corners' inquests were held in St. Louis in the year 1867.

WHAT RELEVANT?—The impeachment Managers, at Washington, introduced certain evidence to prove that Gen. Thomas had threatened to take possession of the War Office by force. We cannot see what relevancy such evidence has to the case at hand. If the Senate were trying Gen. Thomas for "high crimes and misdemeanors," we could well understand the force of evidence showing that he made threats of unlawful violence. But the President is on trial, and we cannot see why he is to be held responsible for the turbulent language of Gen. Thomas, any more than he should for the illegal acts of the Collector of Customs of this port, should he commit any. If the President is to be tried for the offences of others, there will be no trouble in convicting him. Hold him responsible for the illegal and revolutionary acts of Thad. Stevens, and hang him at once. [S. F. Call.]

SMART WOMAN.—A lady killed a large eagle with a brick, near Amherst, Wisconsin. The bird was in the act of attacking a flock of geese. The courageous lady cooked his goose for him.

MARK TWAIN intends soon to lecture in San Francisco on his Holy Land experience.

CIRCULATION.—The New York Ledger has a circulation of 240,000 copies weekly.

TOWN AND COUNTY MATTERS.

HOW WOODLAND LOOKS TO AN OUTSIDER.

The following is from our old and venerable friend, Bill Dadd, the Scribe: "Editor DEMOCRAT—A few days since I returned from attending my unfortunate lawsuit in Stockton, and concluded to re-visit Woodland that I might note the changes which have occurred during the last six months. Why, sir, everything indicates a very rapid growth in and around the town. Even the men, women and children are growing very fast, and the town has grown almost beyond my recollection. As I entered the town, I was struck with the signs of improvement and a small brickbat which a careless boy shied at my venerable head. Thrusting forward my cane, I tripped the young rascal up, and after reading him a lecture on the enormity of the offense and the stern necessity of his being corrected, I proceeded to bestow my blessing, with the aid of my cane, in support of the end in view. This pleasant duty having been performed, I wiped the moisture from my spectacles, for 'a good action to the heart is like dew to the flowers,' and proceeded to survey the improvements of the town. I found the streets very dry, and numbers of ladies promenading thereon. With pleasure I remarked the absence of mud-puddles and waterfalls, both destructive of beauty; yet I noticed a few ladies who adhere to the latter while avoiding the former. Seeing so many beautiful and well-dressed ladies on the street, and for getting my recent bereavement, I concluded to put on a few 'airs' myself that I might attract their attention. To do this, it became necessary to replenish my dilapidated wardrobe, for the careless boy had smashed my hat and soiled my shirt. For this purpose I started on a reconnaissance, aiming to bring up at Gray & Freeman's. I could not find the place at first, everything was so much changed. A new front and rear left nothing original to the old store except the middle. Inside of the building I found things pretty lively. Large quantities of goods in store and in transit (which means being taken by their customers), I tried to find an opportunity to take some things myself, but they watched me too closely. Evidently they understood their business. Leaving them, I continued my explorations. I passed two new places said to be Gallbraith & Magee's and Aronson & Dryfus's stores. I was not on visiting terms at either of those stores, having never been introduced. But I learn that they are fine places and an ornament to the town. I also learned that Magee dealt in groceries, and these were not in my line. I was somewhat fearful of the other, for I did not like a dry fus—I prefer mine moist if I must have one. Entering a new store, I inquired for a shirt. 'We don't sell them here, sir,' said the person addressed; 'but if you want a redwood overcoat, in the time we can fill the bill.' I discovered that I was in a new drug store—a notable feature of Woodland. But I hope Elliott will not follow the maxim of 'throw physic to the dogs,' for judging by the numbers in town, the school fund must receive quite an installment from the canine tax; and he ought not to stop the canine bark with quinine bark. Slowly working my way thence, I came to a new crockery and glassware store that had arisen from the street since I was last in town. To gratify curiosity, I entered and inquired of the clerk, 'What place is this?' 'Why,' said he, 'this is the new addition to Fleischman & Kaufman's store.' On wiping my spectacles I discovered that what I had taken for a new store was but a part of the establishment. I had supposed their place large enough before, but was told this hardly enabled them to supply the constantly increasing demand. I think that Sacramento trade store in Woodland now—part of the time at least. Well, here I looked for a shirt. I found one all flannel work, just like a fish net. That suited me, as weather is close at hand. On asking the price and telling them it would do, I was told that the article was for the ladies—a set of hoops. I did not purchase, but kept on investigating. I found one that did suit. Oh, how nice! with flounces and furbelows, tucks and frills, bows and braids, edging and insertion, gusset, gore and band—all complete. I asked the price, telling them that I would take that and look no further, for I was in a hurry. 'Why, uncle,' said Levison, 'that's a lady's garment, and you have no use for that since you have lost your wife.' I was not pleased and a little might ashamed. I attributed the mistake to weak eyes and old age. The little clerk looked solemn as a judge, but something was wrong with the corners of his mouth—they would go up. I don't know as a man is to blame for such mistakes, for the ladies dress so near like the men that it is hard to tell the difference between the articles of clothing. I got into Mrs. D's pants once by mistake, and did not learn the difference until I tried to button them up. I have been more careful since, as that came near causing a family difficulty. I left that store and continued my prospecting. May be I will tell you of the result at some future day."

DOG-GONE!—On Sunday morning last, at the Bazaar of Gray & Freeman, the last was departed from the caudle appendage of Grizzly, the faithful and constant companion of the bachelor member of that firm. Grizzly's illness was borne in a manner becoming the reputation of a good dog. Before embarking on his last tramp, however, the memory of his kind master caused him to whine beseechingly for more drugs. Grizzly Gray carried long and faithfully at the side of his master, and in an hour he departed his post, and received a bullet from a weapon in the hands of an inconsiderate school boy. His death is a sad and mournful warning to those who keep bad company and late hours.

RUNAWAY.—As Mr. St. John and daughter, from Cottonwood, were starting for home on Wednesday evening, the team became frightened near the intersection of Mill and Main streets and ran at a break-neck speed up Main street. Mr. St. J. found it impossible to control them, and was thrown out at the Temple's Hall. The horses continued on, the young lady remaining in the carriage until a collision with a stump, in front of the residence of H. Tilly, brought them to a stand. Miss St. John was violently thrown to the ground, but, providentially, escaped without serious injury. Mr. St. J. received several bruises, but was not dangerously hurt. The carriage and horses were badly wrecked.

ELECTION.—An election will be held in the various precincts of this county, on Saturday, May 16, 1888, for the purpose of allowing the qualified electors of the county to vote upon the proposition to donate bonds of the county to the California Pacific Railroad, to the amount of $100,000. The election will be held at the usual places in each precinct, and the officers heretofore appointed will act in conducting the election. The provisions of the "Referendum Law" will govern the election in all respects.

SPRING STOCK.—The enterprising firm, Huston, Goldman & Co., Knight's Landing, have received another addition to their large stock of choice goods, consisting of a complete assortment of fancy and dress goods, clothing, etc. Their new advertisement, received too late for today's issue, will appear next week.

THEATRE.—The Wilton Dramatic Company gave three entertainments in this place the past week. They had fair but not full houses, and this we regret, as they are really deserving of the public patronage. The accommodations for theatrical exhibitions in Woodland are not such as will enable any piece to be put upon the stage in such a manner as could be wished; but the Wiltons managed that part, as they did all their parts, very well indeed, and those who attended their entertainments were highly pleased. We can recommend this company to the people of the town which they may visit, assuring them that they are worthy of support. We understand that at the earnest solicitation of many lovers of the Temperance reform, the company has consented to repeat the play of "Ten Nights in a Bar-room," at Temperance Hall, on Monday evening next.

CLUB MEETING.—The Democratic Club held a lively meeting at their room, on Thursday night. There was a full attendance, and much enthusiasm was manifested; several new names were added to the roll. It is expected that in one week more the Club-roll will contain the names of a majority of the voters of this Election District. The Democracy of Yolo county were never before so thoroughly alive and determined as at this time, while apathy, discord, distrust and internal dissensions pervade the scattered bands of their Radical opponents. The next meeting of the Club will be on Thursday evening next, and all are invited to attend.

REPAIRING.—The race track, west of town, is being repaired and fitted up in perfect order by the proprietor. We are glad of it, as it is likely that in the future we shall have more fast running and trotting, and less, perhaps, fast talk. Fast horses, whose reputation is based upon the jaw-bone of their owners, will probably be turned out to grass. Hereafter it will be "shut up, or put up."

TOBACCO.—Gallbraith, Magee & Co., have just received an addition to their stock of fine Virginia chewing-tobacco, consisting of the favorite old brands, and some choice and new ones, the finest that ever left the Old Dominion. See G. M. & Co.'s new advertisement in today's DEMOCRAT.

SALE.—We are informed that S. Shryock has sold his interest (one-half) in the Woodland Mills to L. Messenger, of Sacramento. It is said that the new firm intends to completely re-fit and enlarge the capacity of the mill before the coming harvest.

IMPROVEMENT.—The mud-holes in front of the Railroad Exchange and Woodland House have been filled up during the past week. The enterprising proprietors of those houses have the good wishes of all who are possessed of weak stomachs.

STORM.—Our town and vicinity was visited by a heavy storm of wind and rain on Thursday night. The rain fell in torrents, and the wind howled in a style that was very creditable to the well-known blowing propensity of Old Bores himself.

HEDGE.—H. Deemer, at his farm one mile east of town, has planted a row of the orange orange, for the purpose of testing its adaptation to our soil and climate. We shall watch the development of this experiment with much interest.

SOCIAL PARTY.—We have received from the managers a complimentary ticket to a social party to be given at the Fairfield School House, Friday evening, April 17th. The proceeds will be applied to the repairing of the school house.

PLANTS AND FLOWERS.—We noticed a fine assortment of plants and flowers on Main street, opposite Gray and Freeman's store. The lot is offered for sale at auction, at 1 o'clock, to-day.

IN STYLE.—The Occidental Saloon, corner of Main and Court streets, is being thoroughly repaired, and is to be furnished with new billiard tables, furniture and bar fixtures.

ADMITTED.—H. G. Burnett and W. W. Burnett, of this town, were, on Monday last, admitted by the Supreme Court to practice in all Courts of the State.

CHANGE OF PLACE.—The May Ball, to be given on the 1st of May, will be held at Elliott's new building, not at Temple's Hall as before stated.

MARRIED.
In Woodland, April 5th, by W. A. Henry, Justice of the Peace, EVAN KNAPP to SADIE CONNELLY.
(When love's sensation the soul was quaking,
And Cupid's darts caused hours of aching,
To the restless heart came a welcome rap,
And she got Evan by taking a Knapp.)

DIED.
Near Woodland, March 29th, OLIVE C., wife of Russell B. Blowers, aged 30 years and 11 months.
[Services at the M. E. Church, Woodland, on Wednesday evening next. The address will be delivered by Mrs. Laura Cuppy.]

have tried every remedy but the one destined,

Extract of Jamaica Ginger.

This valuable preparation containing in a highly concentrated form all the properties of the Jamaica Ginger, has become one of the most popular domestic remedies for all diseases of the stomach and digestive organs.
As a tonic it will be found invaluable to all persons recovering from debility, whether produced by fever or otherwise, for whilst it imparts to the system all the glow and vigor that can be produced by wine or brandy, it is entirely free from the reactionary effects that follow the use of spirits of any kind.
It is also an excellent remedy for females who suffer from difficult menstruation, giving almost immediate relief to the spasm that so frequently accompanies that period.
It gives immediate relief to Nausea, caused by riding in a railroad car, or by sea-sickness, or other causes.
It is also valuable as an external application

And it shook him, shook him sorely, Shook his boots off and his hair off, Shook his teeth all into tatters, Shook his shirt all into ribbons, Shirts, collars, hairless, toothless, Minus boots and minus hair, Still it shook him, shook him till it Made him yellow, gaunt and bony; Shook him till he reached his death-bed; Shook him till he shuffled for him Off his mortal coil, and then it Having laid him cold and quiet, Shook the earth all down upon him; And he lies beneath his grave-stone, Ever shaking, shaking!

"You say you have confidence in the plaintiff, Mr. Smith?"

"Yes, sir."

"State to the Court, if you please, what caused the feeling of confidence."

"Why, you see, sir, there's allers reports about eatin'-house men, and I used to kinder think—"

"Never mind what you thought—tell the Court what you know."

"Well, sir, one day I goes down to Cook-em's shop, an' says to the waiter:

"'Waiter, says I, 'give's a weal pie.'"

"Well, sir, proceed."

"Well, just then, Mr. Cookem comes to-ward me, and says he:

"'How are you, Mr. Smith? What are you going to have?'"

"'Weal pie, says I.'"

"'Good,' says he; 'I'll take one, too.'"

"So he sets down an' eats one of his own weal pies right afore me."

"Did that cause your confidence in him?"

"Yes, indeed, sir. When an eatin'-house keeper sets down afore his customers and deliberately eats one of his own weal pies, no man refuses to feel confidence—it shows him to be an honest man."

A YOUNG man in New Haven rushed into a drug store and in great alarm asked the clerk if benzine was poisonous. "No," said the clerk. "Why?" "Because," said the fellow, "father went to the closet to take down the gin bottle, and by mistake took several swallows of benzine before he knew it."

"He's all right," replied the clerk. "The only difference between benzine and modern gin is the smell."

THE more we see of the world, the more we are satisfied that simplicity is as inseparable the companion of true genius as it is of true greatness. We never yet knew a truly great man—a man who overstepped his fellow men—who did not possess a certain playful, almost infantine simplicity. True greatness never struts on stilts, or plays the king upon the stage.

When a young creature is fifteen she wants to be considered twenty; when twenty her figure is eighteen; when twenty-five she fancies nineteen; when forty she inclines to rank at about twenty-seven. A VENDOR of hoop-skirts was recently extolling his wares in the presence of a customer's husband. "No lady should be without one of these skirts," said the shopman. "Well, of course not," dryly responded the husband, who was something of a wag, "she should be within one."

The following test for qualification to participate in the election of Delegates, was adopted:

All voters opposed to the Radical policy of Congress, to Negro or Chinese suffrage, and in favor of a Constitutional administration of the Government of the whole Union, shall be entitled to vote for Delegates.

The Central committee urgently request the different county committees of the Democratic Party to call their County Conventions for the election of Delegates at as early a date as possible, and to forward to Thos. N. azean, Secretary of the Committee, at the Rooms of the Committee, 321 California street, a full list of their County Committees, officers and members.

The following was unanimously adopted by the Central Committee, and directed to be published for the acceptance of County committees:

Resolved, That it is recommended to the County Committees that, in the call for County Conventions, the Delegates elected to the State Convention constitute Congressional Conventions, to meet at the same time and place, to nominate candidates for Congress for their respective Districts, if such are to be elected, and to appoint District Committees for each Congressional District.

The State Central Committee deem it eminently proper that, in the discharge of their duties to the great majority of the people of the State of California, who are united under the one banner of political opposition, the Committee represent, as well as to the great conservative masses of our people, to express their sentiments upon the momentous issues now threatening the stability of our Government, and have unanimously adopted the following resolutions:

Resolved, That the Radical majority in Congress, instead of seeking to lighten the burdens of taxation, disregarding both the will of the people and their official oaths in an unnatural pursuit after Negro Equality, having been laboring to usurp the functions of the Executive, degrade the judiciary, and after committing the indecency of forcing upon the President a Cabinet officer personally offensive to him, and making a military and naval expedition independent of the orders of the President, thus uniting in their own hands the purse and the sword, they have for the first time presented to the world the disgraceful spectacle of an American President arraigned by a party vote, avowedly for party purposes, before a Senate, more than two thirds of which is composed of his political opponents, and placed on trial for a crime except that of having endeavored to preserve, protect and defend the Constitution of the United States and the liberties of the people; that in these proceedings the Radical party in Congress have been manifestly actuated by a desire to perpetuate themselves in office, and to effect the unqualified condemnation of all good citizens, without distinction of party.

Resolved, That this Committee view with sincere alarm the revolutionary action of the Radical majority in Congress, and in the foregoing resolutions, and in the call for County Conventions, to create wide-spread distrust, and seriously damage the other great interests of the country.

The State Central Committee desire to impress upon the Democratic and Conservative voters of the State the necessity of assembling in their various localities, to form Clubs, and to take active measures for the approaching political campaign that the rights of the people may be preserved, the Constitution upheld, and the Union again saved.

By order of the Democratic State Central Committee. J. P. HOGE, President.

Thos. N. azean, Secretary.

NEW ENGLAND

Mutual Life Insurance Co

OF BOSTON.

DECEMBER 31, 1890.

Cash Assets..... $5,067,382 84.

The Oldest Purely Mutual Life Insurance Company in the United States.

Dividends declared annually. First dividend available at the payment of the second annual premium. All the Policies remain in force so long as there may be any surrender value. Thus a party insuring at the age of thirty-five on Life plan—

1 annual premium continues policy 3 years and 3 days.

2 " " " " 4 years and 12 days.

3 " " " " 6 years and 28 days.

4 " " " " 8 years and 46 days.

5 " " " " 10 years and 56 days.

Careful investigation and unbiased judgment will conclusively show that this old Company offers advantages that cannot be equaled by any other Company doing business on this coast. No stockholders in this Company.

Official Reports made January 1, 1887, show this Company's ratio of Premium Reserve to be larger than any other Company in the United States.

Notes will be taken in part payment of Premiums, drawing interest at the rate of six per cent. per annum.

Home Office, 39 State Street, Boston.

EVERSON & HAINES, General Ag'ts,

Office California Branch, 202 Montgomery st., San Francisco.

"Prove all Things; Hold Fast to that Which is Good!"

This Company does not desire to undertake the merits of any other Company. All it asks is a candid investigation of its merits, and if parties before being "picked up" by traveling solicitors of other Companies will call on me they will be able to see that they can insure cheaper than with any other Company doing business on the Pacific coast.

Fifteen Years Monopoly!

The subscriber offers for sale the right to put down T. S. Lewis' in the several unsold county rights in this State, to wit: Yolo, San Joaquin, and Sacramento counties. By the use of this Tube, a Well is obtained at less than one-tenth the labor of digging. The Wells are permanent, convenient, require no cleaning, and will endure for ages without cost for repairs.

PATENT TUBE WELLS,

Any man with the will and strength to wield a sledge-hammer, can unaided, make from $10 to $50 per day, every day he may labor, at putting down these wells, and have a county monopoly for fifteen years and three months. The patent was issued in May last, as an improvement on all Tubed Wells. In nine months time it has been introduced, and is now in use in every State in the Union, excepting Nevada and Oregon. The Well can be seen and tested in this State.

For particulars, call on the subscriber, corner of 8th and Brannan streets, San Francisco, or address through post-office.
